Frequently Asked Questions

Does my child need to order photos to be photographed?
No. All students are photographed for school records and the yearbook, regardless of whether photos are purchased.

What if I pre-ordered photos but am not happy with my child's picture?
If you've received your photo package and would like a retake, send the package back with your child on Retake Day and give it to the photographer. Geskus will use the new image for your order.

I would like my child to have a retake. What should I do?
Please send your child's name and grade to Kristi Belesca, Director of Marketing and Communications, at Kristi Belesca. Kristi will add your child to the retake list.

How will I receive my prints?
Print orders are shipped directly to your home by Geskus Photography.

What about class/group photos?
Class and group photos are handled separately from individual portraits. When available, they will be distributed to students through their teacher or advisor.

I have questions about ordering, proofs, packages, or shipping. Who should I contact?
Please contact Geskus Customer Support directly.
In our experience, Geskus is very responsive and is the best resource for questions about orders, payments, proofs, packages, and shipping. If you contact NYA with these questions, we will likely refer you to Geskus.

Pro tip: If you've previously unsubscribed from Geskus emails, check your spam folder or visit geskusprint.com to ensure you're receiving important communications about proofs and ordering.
